Celebrating 25 years at Kauffman Stadium

Kauffman Stadium

The Kansas City Royals celebrate the 25th anniversary of Kauffman Stadium in 1997.

Recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks, Royals Stadium opened April 10, 1973 with the Royals defeating the Texas Rangers 12-1 before 39,464 fans. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 All-Star Game, 3 no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and 7 World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially re-named in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993. Since its opening, a total of 45,329,539 people have visited the stadium, including a record 2,477,700 in 1989.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 12-story high scoreboard and a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The scoreboard contains 16,320 light bulbs, most of them on the 40 by 60 foot screen. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

Added in 1990 was a state-of-the-art Sony JumboTron color video display board installed on the leftfield hillside. The largest video board in the U.S. measures 30 by 40 feet and the top of the board features the Royals logo. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends to the leftfield corner.

A grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium prior to the 1995 season. The fences were also moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen at that time and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet.

The re-naming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health car company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. The club's even-handed philosophy bear the Kauffman stamp. Mr. K also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbreded into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man-of-the-Year, the "Mr. Baseball" honoree at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1976 and 1991 and induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. He also received the Horatio Alger Award, the Golden Plate Award from the American Academy of Achievement, the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce "Kansas Citian of the Year" award and the Distinguished Service Award from the American Legion. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

On the Cover

Many memorable moments have occurred at Kauffman (nee Royals) Stadium since the facility was built in time for the 1973 campaign. Some of the highlights are featured on the front cover including photographs of Mr. and Mrs. K on Opening Night 1973; shots from both the 1980 and '85 World Series; a scoreboad recognition of the longest home run in stadium history off the bat of Bo Jackson; Bret Saberhagen's no-hitter; and George Brett's final game in Kansas City.

Royals Operating Officers

Spencer T. "Herk" Robinson

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Under the leadership of Herk Robinson, the Kansas City Royals are once again setting a mark as a model major league franchise.

The 28-year member of the Royals is in his 7th season as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager. During this stint, which began on October 10, 1990, Robinson has pushed for the Royals minor league pipeline to pump quality talent to the major league level, as it did in the 1970's thru mid-1980's.

In the last 7 years, Robinson and his staff have reshaped the organization's major and minor league operations. Under his guidance, the Royals have a rededication to scouting and signing amateur players, while continuing a strong player development program and improving the club through key trades and acquisitions. This hard work seems to be paying off as the organization's success has been rewarded in recent years. In 1995, Topps tabbed the Royals and New York Mets as co-winners of baseball's Organization of the Year award and in 1994, the Royals were named Organization of the Year by Topps, Baseball America and USA Today.

Robinson's tenure with the Royals extends far beyond his current title. He and the late Joe Burke are the only Royals executives to have worked in virtually every aspect of the club's baseball and administrative operations. Robinson joined the club just after its inaugural season in December of 1969 as Assistant Scouting Director. He was steadily promoted up the Royals ladder as Director of Stadium Operations in 1973, Vice President in 1975 and Executive Vice-President for Administration in 1981. This well-rounded background makes him a solid leader for the Royals. Before joining the organization, Robinson worked for the Cincinnati Reds (1962-67) and Baltimore Orioles (1968).

Born June 25, 1940, Robinson attended the University of Miami (FL) and Washington University in St. Louis. He and his wife Kathy, and daughters, Ashley and Amanda, reside in Leawood, KS.

1996 Kansas City Royals Recap

GENERAL: The Kansas City Royals went through what was described as an "experimental" season as they searched to put the pieces of the foundation for the future in the right places...2nd year manager Bob Boone tinkered with his lineup and shuffled his players in the field as he looked to determine the basis for the future of the club...after a slow start, the Royals held their own for the remainder of the season, playing at or near the .500 mark after late April...in a season where offenses were putting up record numbers all around baseball, the Royals strength once again remained with their pitching staff and a steady defense.

RECORD: Despite playing nearly .500 ball after April 25, the Royals finished last in the American League's Central Division with a 75-86 record, the first last-place finish in club history...the Royals finished 24 games behind the Cleveland Indians, who captured the Central Division flag for the 2nd straight year...despite dropping 3 notches in the standings, the Royals lopped off 6 games from the deficit in which they finished behind Cleveland in 1995...the Royals got off to a slumbering start in 1996, dropping their first 3 games in Baltimore and losing 6 of their first 8 contests...a 1-8 stretch from April 17-25, which included a season-high 6-game losing streak, dropped the Royals 10 games under the .500 mark at 6-16...the Royals split their next 8 games before going on a season-high 6-game winning streak from May 5-10, including a 4-game sweep in California, that brought them to just 4 games under the .500 mark at 16-20...the Royals dropped 6 of their next 8 to fall back to 8 games under at 18-26, then won 5 straight to creep to 23-26, but that's as close as they would come to reaching the .500 mark again...the Royals went 8-17 in their next 25 contests to fall to 31-43 on June 22...the club went into the All-Star break in last place in the Central Division with a 38-50 record, 14 1/2 games behind the front-running Tribe...the Royals were more consistent in the season's 2nd half, hovering between 8 and 14 games under the .500 mark...the Royals escaped the cellar position for about a week in mid-August, but a 6-game losing streak from August 18-23 assured the club of their first last place finish...the Royals posted a 37-36 post-All-Star break record, the 2nd best mark in the division behind Cleveland.

ATTENDANCE: A team void of marquee names and another summer without a labor agreement led to a rather disappointing attendance in Kansas City...the Royals had a home attendance total of 1,436,007 for an average of 17,950 over 80 home dates...that average was the league's 11th best total...the largest crowd to see a game at "The K" was an Opening Day total of 39,526 vs. Boston...the Royals drew 2,084,205 in 81 road dates for an average of 25,731, the 11th highest road average in the 14-team league...the largest announced crowd in a game played by the Royals in 1996 was 56,329 for Opening Day in New York's Yankee Stadium on April 9.

BY MONTHS: The Royals were 9-18 in April, 15-12 in May, 10-17 in June, 14-13 in July, 14-15 in August and 13-11 in September... the 18 losses and 27 games played in April were both club records...the Royals failed to play at least .500 ball in August for the first time since 1983.

BY DIVISION: The Royals were 27-34 against teams from the American League Eastern Division (13-18 at home and 14-16 on the road), 26-22 against Western Division clubs (14-9 at home and 12-13 on the road) and 22-30 against their rivals in the Central Division (10-16 at home and 12-14 on the road)...the Royals were 9-3 vs. Boston, 8-4 against California, 7-5 vs. Seattle, 6-6 against both Detroit and Texas, 6-7 vs. Chicago, Cleveland and Minnesota, 5-7 against

Pinch Hitter Rule

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up).

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

Designated Hitter Rule

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

No-Hitter Summary

Steve Busby, Jim Colborn and Bret Saberhagen are the only pitchers in Royals history to have hurled no-hitters.

Busby accomplished the feat on 2 occasions, the first coming at Tiger Stadium when he held Detroit hitless on April 27, 1973. He gave up 6 walks and struck out 4 as Kansas City won 3-0. His 2nd gem also came on the road on June 19, 1974 at Milwaukee's County Stadium where he blanked the Brewers, 2-0. It was in near perfect fashion as the only baserunner was George Scott, who walked to lead off the 2nd inning.

Colborn recorded the 1st no-hitter by a Kansas City pitcher in Kauffman Stadium on May 14, 1977, when he blanked the Texas Rangers, 6-0. It too was nearly a perfect outing as Colborn walked one batter and hit another while facing only 28 batters.

Saberhagen recorded his gem in Kauffman Stadium vs. the Chicago White Sox on August 26, 1991. He walked 2 and fanned 5.

California Angels ace Nolan Ryan recorded the 1st no-hitter in Kauffman Stadium on May 15, 1973. He struck out 12 and allowed only 3 base runners, all walks, in the 3-0 win, his 1st career no-hitter.

Royals Hall of Fame

The Royals Hall of Fame was established to honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the Royals organization.

To date, 15 people have been inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame. Outfielder Amos Otis and pitcher Steve Busby were inducted in the inaugural ceremony in 1986; Paul Splittorff, Cookie Rojas and Dick Howser were inducted in 1987; Dennis Leonard and Hal McRae were added in 1989; while Fred Patek, Larry Gura and Joe Burke joined the select group in 1992. Owner Ewing Kauffman was the sole addition in the Silver Anniversary season of 1993, George Brett was added in 1994 and Frank White joined the Hall in 1995. Muriel Kauffman and John Mayberry are the most recent inductees, as each joined the select group in 1996.

Amos Otis' career with the Royals spanned 14 years (1970-1983) when he held down the starting centerfield spot. He compiled a solid .280 average in a Kansas City uniform with 193 home runs, 992 RBI and 340 stolen bases while winning three Gold Gloves and five All-Star nominations. He was the Royals Player of the Year three times (1971, '73 and '78).

Steve Busby was one of the Royals best pitchers and top competitors despite having his career shortened by a shoulder injury. From 1973-75 he averaged 18.6 wins, 260 innings and 177 strikeouts per season while establishing many club records. A two-time All-Star, he's the only pitcher to toss no-hitters in each of his first two big league seasons.

Paul Splittorff's big league career included action in 15 seasons from 1970-84. He was a mainstay on the staff from 1972-80 when he averaged nearly 15 wins and 220 innings per year. The big left-hander holds the Royals career records for wins, starts and innings pitched. In 1973 he became the first 20-game winner in Royals history.

Cookie Rojas brought eight-and-a-half years National League experience to the Royals in 1970 and his experience and leadership abilities were felt immediately with the young expansion team, providing a solid base for future championships. Rojas was named to the American League All-Star team four consecutive years (1971-74).

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won two division titles and a World Championship in 1985. He compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while guiding the Royals. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

HALL OF FAME

Dennis Leonard is the only three-time 20-game winner in Royals history. The three-time Royals Pitcher of the Year holds the club's career record for complete games, strikeouts, and shutouts, and single season highs in starts, complete games, innings pitched and strikeouts. His 130 wins from 1975-81 were the most by a righthanded pitcher in the major leagues.

Hal McRae's hard-nosed, aggressive style of play set the tone for the Royals championship clubs. He spent 14 full seasons in a Royals uniform and was recognized as one of the AL's most prolific designated hitters. He was a three-time All-Star, led the league in doubles twice and topped the loop with 133 RBI in 1982. He earned Royals Player of the Year honors in 1974 and '82.

Despite being the smallest player in the big leagues at 5-4, Fred Patek was a cornerstone of the early success of the franchise. He wore a Royals uniform from 1971-79, posting a .241 average in 1,245 games, earning a pair of All-Star game selections from his shortstop position. He led the league with 11 triples in 1971 and with 53 stolen bases in 1977.

Larry Gura logged a 111-78 record as a Royal, a 59 percent winning percentage, the top mark in club history. The crafty lefthander was a member of the 1980 American League All-Star squad and twice was selected as the Royals Pitcher of the Year (1978 and 1981). His career highs for wins came in 1980 and 1982 when he recorded 18 victories.

Under Joe Burke's guidance, baseball achieved its greatest success in Kansas City. He joined the club in 1973 and served as General Manager from 1974-1981. He was President of the club from that time until cancer took his life in 1992. He was named Major League Executive of the Year in 1976 and was named "Mr. Baseball" at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1978.

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. Since purchasing the club as an expansion franchise in 1968, Mr. K's primary motivation was to provide winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. His leadership helped make the Royals one of baseball's most successful franchises.

HALL OF FAME

George Brett wrapped up a 20-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993. The 13-time All-Star and 8-time Royals Player of the Year is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was an American League MVP, a Gold Glove Award winner and 3-time AL batting champion. His uniform number 5 will never be worn again.

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973-90 as he won 8 Gold Gloves, an American League record for 2nd baseman. He was selected to the All-Star team 8 times, named the Royals Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986 and tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980. He is 2nd on the Royals career charts in hits, games and at bats and is 3rd in doubles and home runs. White's number 20 has been retired.

Muriel Kauffman, the Royals First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field.

John Mayberry was the Royals' first true power hitter and probably the most impressive. He was a bomber in a lineup that featured speed and gap hitters. In 6 seasons in Kansas City he averaged 24 home runs and 94 RBI. He earned All-Star honors in both 1973 and '74 and became the club's first 30-home run hitter with 34 "taters" in 1975.

Royals Radio and Television Networks

For the 23rd consecutive season, WIBW Radio (AM-580) in Topeka, Kansas, will serve as the Royals flagship station.

Under the guidance of General Manager Tom Cheatham, the Royals Radio Network (which is owned by Stauffer Communications, Inc. - a subsidiary of Morris Communications) will broadcast 15 spring training games and the entire 162-game regular season schedule. The network affiliate in the Kansas City area will be KMBZ-980. KMBZ has carried the Royals in 23 of the club's first 29 seasons.

The Royals Radio Network is the largest network in the American League in terms of number of stations (more than 110) and geography (9 states).

Taking over the Royals television package in 1997 is FOX Sports Rocky Mountain, a member of the FOX Sports Net family of regional sports networks. The network carries a wide variety of sports teams and events including extensive Big 12 and Pac-10 packages, NHL and NBA games and college basketball from most major conferences in addition to several other Major League Baseball teams.

FOX Sports Rocky Mountain will televise 80 Royals games in 1997, the most ever in the franchise's history. The total includes 50 games over the air and 30 on cable, which represents expanded coverage of both home and road games. The over-the-air package calls for local carriers KMBC (Channel 9/ABC) and KCWB (Channel 29/Warner Bros.) to air 15 and 35 games respectively.

The voices on the radio network will be familiar in 1997 with Denny Matthews and Fred White, the longest tenured pair in the American League, handling the play-by-play and former Royals Paul Splittorff and John Wathan adding color analysis. The televison announce team was not yet determined at press time.

Denny Matthews will call the action on Royals radio for the 29th season. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the number 2 announcer position prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, then took over the number 1 job after the 1975 season. Matthews has also lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and '85 World Series. The 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan lettered in football and baseball for 3 years. He finished 8th in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965. An avid collector of sports publications, Denny is single and resides in Leawood, KS.

Fred White enters his 24th year with the Royals. The award-winning announcer has worked college basketball and football games for CBS, NBC, TVS, Raycom and ESPN. His voice is heard year-round as he continues to draw college basketball assignments throughout the country. An Eastern Illinois University graduate, White has been named Kansas Sportscaster-of-the-Year several times. He was the "voice" of Kansas State University football and basketball for several seasons. He and his wife, Barb, reside in Leawood, KS. He has 3 children, Stacy, John and Joe Brett.

Don Free, who has worked for WIBW for 29 years, will begin his 12th year as the producter/engineer of the radio broadcasts. He and his wife, Sandy, live in Topeka, KS. They have 2 grown daughters.

RADIO & TELEVISION

John Wathan enters his 2nd season as part of the Royals network team as he will serve as a color analyst during Royals radio broadcasts. Wathan played for the Royals from 1976-85 and is in the Royals all-time Top 10 in games, triples and stolen bases. He served as a coach in 1986 and took over as manager from 1987-91, leading the team to a 287-270 record. In 1995, Wathan was a color commentator for several games on The Baseball Network. Wathan and his wife, Nancy, live in Blue Springs, MO and have 2 sons and a daughter.

Paul Splittorff begins his 2nd year as a color commentator on the Royals Radio Network. Splitt has worked each of the past 8 seasons as the analyst on the Royals Television Network. The Royals Hall of Famer and all-time winningest pitcher in club history has developed his broadcasting background since retiring in 1984 after pitching in the Royals organization since 1968. He has worked as a play-by-play announcer and analyst for collegiate football and basketball games and on the Royals pre-and post-game shows. He also handled the color commentary for ESPN during the 1985 season on the game-of-the-week and College World Series. Paul and his wife, Lynn, live in Blue Springs, MO and they have a son and a daughter.
